Dear Students, Families, Faculty, and Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you all today to recognize some of The State University of New York’s most accomplished students.

These 248 stand-out students from our 64 campuses embody opportunity. They came to our campuses eager to make the most of their college experience, to not only excel academically but to develop and contribute the best of themselves to their campuses and communities. They are exceptional leaders, founders, helpers, and athletes. And the achievements of these students reflect not only their impressive hard work and dedication, but the support of their families and friends and SUNY’s world-class faculty and staff.

The State University of New York is proud to be not only the largest comprehensive public university system in the nation but also New York’s leading economic driver and partner in creating better opportunities and a better quality of life for all New Yorkers. SUNY’s presence in communities in every part of the state is an important and unique contributor to our state’s vibrancy—and students like today’s awardees are sure to be leaders in building a better, stronger, healthier New York in the years to come.

I know I can speak on behalf of the entire State University of New York system when I congratulate our students on their distinguished achievements and wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors.

With best wishes,

Nancy L. Zimpher
Chancellor
