State University of New York

Memorandum to Presidents

Date: July 8, 1977
From: Office of the Acting Chancellor
Subject: Policy Relating to Suspension of Classes on Certain Religious Holidays

The Board of Trustees, at its June 22, 1977 meeting, approved the following resolution:

Resolved that, without limiting the authority of the Chief Administrative Officer of each campus with respect to additional days of religious observance, it shall be the policy of State University of New York that classes or other courses of instruction at the State-operated campuses shall be suspended on those days of religious observance known as Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, effective with the 1977-78 academic year.

I would be grateful if you would review your academic calendars and make the appropriate changes.
